Watches, Clocks and Jewelry REPAIRED

O. LAMONT, JEWELER
2nd Street Perrysburg, O.

—Mrs. Carrie Freer of Monroe, Mich., and Mrs. Ida Pocklington of Detroit were in Perrysburg the latter part of last week visiting friends. They are the two youngest daughters of the late Israel Thornton, and have many relatives and friends here.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Rheinfrank accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rheinfrank to Ann Arbor, Mich., last week and attended the musical festival in that city. They motored over from Toledo, and the Doctor says they had a most enjoyable trip and entertainment.

ARE YOU AWARE that we may be the next community to be visited by that terrible and unmerciful destroyer, The Wind? It may be tomorrow, next week or next month. Are you protected by insurance? Less than a penny a day will insure you for three years for $1500.00. You can't afford to carry the risk yourself. Information cheerfully given. Ask me for anything in insurance.

UNCLE TOM AGAIN.

Little Eva, the good old Uncle Tom, the hard hearted Legree, with Topsy and Marks the lawyer, and all the rest of the Harris family, with the ferocious bloodhounds, will visit Perrysburg on Monday, May 26, giving a magnificent production under waterproof canvas on the corner of Elm street and Indiana avenue, back of the school house.

Uncle Tom's Cabin is the one great play that will live in the hearts of young and old forever, and the company that will present the play in Perrysburg is one of the best on the road.

The play is a part of our nation's history, and every child should be given an opportunity to witness the production.

This company carries a concert band that will give a free concert on the public square at 7:15 in the evening, just before the show. Admission, 15 and 25 cents.

—M. U. Jarrett, E. A. Underhill and John M. Drury are enjoying the scenery and salt baths at the Andrews Sanitarium in St. Louis, Mich., and Ed writes us that the water is fine. He is enjoying himself immensely and is learning to swim. When he returns we expect to find a new set of fins growing on his back. He does not say what variety of fish he expects to become, but we naturally suppose he will take kindly to the Red Horse family.

DESTROY DANDELIONS.

For destruction of dandelions and other weeds in the lawn, use 2 lbs. of sulphate of iron dissolved in 1 gal. of water. Have grass mowed short and spray the mixture over it. Will not kill the grass, but is sure death to dandelions.

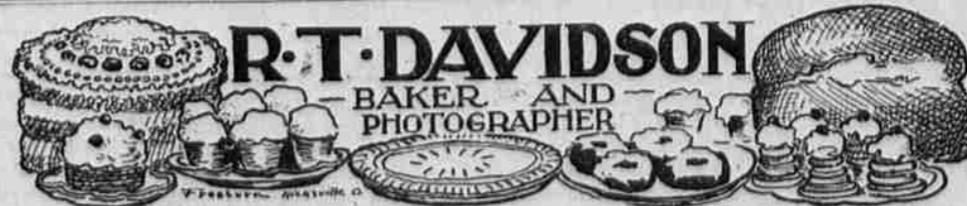

Mr. Chris. Finkbeiner says this is a sure weed killer.
